

Integrated management system policy in the field of quality, occupational health and safety, environmental management of ES Group Europe s.r.o.

ES Group Europe s.r.o. is a young, modern, and fast-growing energy company.

ES Group Europe s.r.o. specializes in:

- performance of research works on substantiation of safety of NPPs and other nuclear installations (NPPs), expert-analytical works in the field of nuclear energy, design and development of systems and equipment for NPPs and TPPs
- development of design and operational documentation
- supply of equipment to energy facilities, especially to NPPs and TPPs
- development, production, sale and service of electrical and thermal equipment, automated control systems and process control.

ES Group Europe s.r.o. carries out activities related to:

- performing a wide range of tasks in the provision of services related to the supply of equipment to energy facilities, ranging from participation in tenders to the commissioning of equipment
- using deterministic and probabilistic methods when performing calculations to substantiate the safe operation of the equipment of the NPP power units
- application of calculation and analytical approach in substantiation of NPP safety issues
- development and preparation of reporting materials on safety analysis and periodic reassessment of NPP safety.

Given the constant growth of requirements for the safety of high-tech industries, in the field of nuclear energy and radiation safety, the management of ES Group Europe s.r.o. declares its commitment to quality, environment and occupational safety as a factor that ensures the effective operation of the enterprise in relation to the implementation of an integrated management system in accordance with ISO 9001: 2015, ISO 19443: 2018, ISO 14001: 2015, ISO 45001: 2018.

The integrated management system is aimed at:

- ensuring strict compliance with the requirements of current legislation, norms, rules, and standards of nuclear and radiation safety
- building the confidence of the population and the international community in the work carried out by the ES Group Europe s.r.o., nuclear and radiation safety assessment
- ensuring control of the company's impact on the environment
- strengthening the professional and social protection of the staff
- prevention of environmental pollution
- improving the efficiency of work performed by ES Group Europe s.r.o., due to the rational use of available resources.

The priorities in the field of integrated management system management ES Group Europe s.r.o. considers:

- development and implementation of internal documents on quality, ecology, and professional safety for company management

- improving the efficiency and quality of work performed by optimizing the distribution of functions and responsibilities of employees of ES Group Europe s.r.o.
- customer satisfaction and continuous improvement of the integrated management system in ES Group Europe s.r.o.
- formation of a quality culture and ensuring the company's employees understand their role in achieving required work results
- systematic assessment and analysis of the enterprise, which is aimed at identifying and eliminating shortcomings
- ensuring continuous training and raising the level of qualification of the company's employees with ensuring they are aware of the importance of improving the company's existing quality management system, occupational health and safety, and environmental management
- constant control and assessment of process risks, environmental aspects and hazards, search, and implementation of opportunities to eliminate risks
- implementation of prevention of environmental pollution, waste disposal by recycling.

Our company has long-term strategic plans for development in the energy market of Ukraine and Europe, which include expanding the specialization and list of services, continuous improvement of the production cycle through implementing innovative solutions of domestic and foreign practice, integration into the global energy community with an impeccable reputation of reliable manufacturer, supplier, and partner.

Management of ES Group Europe s.r.o. is confident that the implementation of the stated policy in the field of quality, occupational health and safety, environmental management affects the efficiency of ES Group Europe s.r.o. and promotes nuclear safety.

Director
ES Group Europe s.r.o.

V.M. Ivanov

January 11, 2021